

THE PROTESTANT REFORMATION AND COUNTER REFORMATION (p.488-500)

1. There are three main branches to the religion of Christianity. When did the two major splits occur that divided the Eastern Orthodox Church and the Roman Catholic Church, and the Protestant Sects from the Roman Catholics? (2 dates)
2. Today there are more than 465 Protestant Denominations. Three major Branches were formed during the 16th century (1517-1570). Name the three and who started them.
3. How many sects have branched off Lutheranism?
4. Which Protestant branch has the most separate shoots, or smaller branches? What are they?
5. What is the difference between the way the Roman Catholic Church sees the Bible and the Protestants?
6. The Catholic Church and the Protestants see access to Heaven differently, too. Explain these differences as well.
7. There are also differences in the way Protestants worship from the Catholic Church. One uses ritual and the other is based on Preaching. What do you think that means?
8. What major differences exist between Lutheranism, Calvinism and Anglicanism?
9. Do you belong to a particular denomination? If so which is it? If not, do you attend a nondenominational church or are you not a member of a church at all? Care to share why?
10. Write a question you would like answered in reference to the Reformation or Christianity in general?
